Non-Party Clause: The maximum amount of persons allowed in a guest room is four (4) at any one time. The Hotel has a non-party policy, which means that the guest rooms may not be utilized for social gatherings. The Hotel (i.e. STAFF MEMBERS) reserves the right to ask and require any group gathering/social function within a guest suite to come to an immediate end. If the room occupants choose to ignore the request, the hotel reserves the right to ask and require the guest to leave the Hotel and the property, without any discount or early departure compensation. In addition, any damage done to the room as a result of a party or group gathering will be the responsibility of the person (s) that have contracted the rooms and /or the registered occupant. Those that disturb other guests in and of the hotel may be responsible for any and all discounts (financial retributions) the hotel may have to give out to compensate another guest(s).
